

The Research Institute of St. Joe's Hamilton – Affiliation Categories and Privileges

Category Determination	Affiliate	Endorsed Affiliate	Associate
Primary research location at SJHH/RSJH	•		•
Meets CIHR definition of "independent researcher"	•	•
Has a Canadian Common CV prepared to RSJH guidelines	•	•	•

Each affiliation category offers a different set of privileges within The Research Institute, including but not limited to:

Privileges by Category	Affiliate	Endorsed Affiliate	Associate
Able to act as a L/PI on studies conducted at SJHH/RSJH	•		•
Can apply for RSJH grants/awards	•		•
Supervised students can apply for grants/awards	•
Access to online training	•	•	•
Access to SOPs	•	•	•
Access to space to conduct research	•
Access to common research equipment	•
Clinical trial insurance for investigator-initiated studies	•		•
Research IT set-up and assistance	•	•	•
Contract review and negotiations services	•	‡	•
Ability to hold and utilize third-party research accounts	•		•
Consultation with Research Administration regarding research resources, conduct, and/or procedures	•	•	•
Consultation with the finance department for all research related advice, grant financial reporting, research financial planning	•		•
Human resources support	•		•
Access to communication services to publicize study findings or research events	•		•

‡ Contracts will only be reviewed by Research Administration for research conducted at St. Joe's where there is an affiliate of The Research Institute as co-investigator.